

Paris, 10th December 2019

Mirela Agache Durand proposed as Chief Executive Officer of Groupama Asset Management

Mirela Agache Durand is joining Groupama to be nominated by the Board as Chief Executive Officer at Groupama Asset Management. Reporting directly to Cyril Roux, Group Chief Financial Officer, she will be taking up her new responsibilities during the first quarter of 2020.

This nomination is subject to approval by the Financial Markets Authority (AMF).

Mirela Agache Durand is 52, she is CFA charterholder and has a PhD in plasma physics. She started her career in 1998 at Oddo & Cie group, successively as a financial engineer, portfolio manager of balanced funds and finally head of the multi-asset multi managers investments team. In 2014, she joined La Banque Postale Asset Management as deputy CIO. Since 2017, she had been CEO of Tocqueville Finance, a position she held in addition to her responsibilities as deputy CEO of LBPAM.

Press contact

Marie-Laure Renaudie – marie-laure.renaudie@groupama.com Tel.: 01 44 56 32 35

About Groupama Group

For more than 100 years, the Groupama Group has been based on timeless humanist values to enable as many people as possible to confidently build their lives. It is based on human, close-knit, optimistic and responsible communities of mutual aid. On the strength of its three brands – Groupama, Gan and Amaguiz – Groupama Group, one of the leading mutual insurers in France, carries out its insurance and service business activities in 10 countries. The Group has 12 million members and customers and 32,000 employees throughout the world, with premium income of €14.3 billion at 31 December 2018. See all the latest Groupama Group news on its website (www.groupama.com) and Twitter account (@GroupeGroupama)

